Roots to Riches: Ladies in Ag is a new event hosted by Farmers State Bank of Elmwood, created to celebrate, connect, and empower women in agriculture. This evening will feature speakers from across the ag industry who will share their personal experiences, professional journeys, and insights on topics ranging from production to financial decision-making and business growth. Whether you're involved in the field, behind the scenes, or just starting out, this event offers inspiration, education, and networking with like-minded women who are rooted in agriculture and growing toward success.
